

As a Practice Leader and Director of Commercial Services, Kyle McCullah has extensive experience in managing various project types thru all aspects of Architectural process. He manages Design, Documents, Construction Administration and Development Services.

Kyle's experience, ability to be a creative problem solver and his guidance thru the process results in team proficiently for successful projects. He is skilled at analyzing the design vision, master planning, addressing challenges and translating it into functional architecture solutions. He values his relationship with clients and focuses on providing exemplary service to meet client's needs.

His project expertise includes master planning of large scale business and industrial parks, specialty aviation, large scale manufacturing and distribution facilities. Kyle is responsible for the daily management and direction of projects as they progress from schematics through construction. He has more than twenty years of experience and is a proud graduate of University of Texas at Arlington, School of Architecture.

REPRESENTATIVE PROJECTS

Crawford Electric –Office / Distribution*	Irving, Texas	160,000 sf
Parkwest- Distribution Center*	Coppel Texas	1,000,000 sf
Mercantile Bank*	Ft. Worth, Texas	(3- stories) 106,000 sf
Valley Ranch- Office Building*	Irving, Texas	95,000 sf
Libby Glass- Distribution Center*	Shreveport, LA	646,000 sf
Southwest Airlines-Lovefield- FBO /Hangars*	Dallas, Texas	350,000 sf
KCI Research & Development Lab and Call Center*	San Antonio, Texas	80,000 sf
Southwest Airlines- Lovefield- Hangars*	Dallas, Texas	250,000 sf
American Airlines –FBO Simulators*	Ft. Worth, Texas	200,000 sf

* personal experience at a prior firm

